

About Dr. Clark and Nationwide

••• Nationwide Parking has enjoyed considerable success as a unique, 100% minority owned business under the direction of Dr. Morris S. Clark, President and CEO. Dr. Clark, originally trained as a surgeon, has been a highly respected member of the Denver business community since 1982 and serves on the boards of numerous business and charitable organizations.

As a result of Dr. Clark's philosophies, Nationwide Parking was formed with an intimate understanding of the role of civic awareness in the world of business. Dr. Clark and his staff of experienced professionals are committed to innovation and excellence in their service to the parking industry.
